

COLLEGE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Nonprofit internships with real impact.

Help a national nonprofit prevent bullying, violence, and suicide through youth leadership development, college prep, and life skills. Finish with work you can show employers and graduate programs.

Fall • Spring • Summer • Rolling admission

Remote + in person

In-person opportunities at PALS each summer

Flexible hours

25–40 hours a week*
9 AM to 8 PM ET

5 committees

26 subcommittees to match your goals

Academic credit

Unpaid; credit through your school

Choose Your Committee

Program Development & Youth Engagement

Mentoring, events, PALS planning, curriculum, and survey analysis

Community Outreach & Engagement

Recruitment, school and university partnerships, and wellness

Marketing & Communications

Public relations, social media, design, writing, and web

Fundraising, Sponsorships & Grants

Grant and prospect research, sponsor relations, and campaigns

Administrative & Operational Support

Operations, logistics, data, IT support, and responsible AI

What You Gain

- Training and mentorship, with regular feedback
- Experiential learning: mentor students and lead workshops, in person or online
- Leadership roles: Chair, Co-Chair, or Secretary
- A certificate of completion and letters of recommendation
- Skills employers want: communication, project management, and research

Term	2027 dates	Apply by
Spring	Jan. 15 – May 14	Nov. 15
Summer	May 14 – Aug. 20	Mar. 1
Fall	Aug. 27 – Dec. 17	Apr. 15

"If I were to recommend an internship opportunity to anyone, I would 100% point them in the direction of NVEEE."

Anna, NVEEE Intern

Who can apply: undergraduates (rising sophomores and above) and graduate students in any major. International students are welcome. For-credit internships, service learning, and graduate practicums are welcome. *A 20-hour week is available when required for credit.

Learn more and apply
nveee.org/internships

internship@nveee.org
(954) 849-6756